SURNAME RESEARCH INTERESTS

Name _____

Use ONLY the space below to provide information to Guild and NEHGS researchers and your fellow participants about the research you intend to pursue during this program. ONLY THE INFORMATION ON THIS PAGE WILL BE SHARED.

DO YOU CURRENTLY HAVE A ONE-NAME STUDY (ONS)?  Yes  No

IF SO, WHAT SURNAME ARE YOU STUDYING? _____

IS YOUR ONE-NAME STUDY REGISTERED WITH THE GUILD?  Yes  No

TELL US ABOUT YOUR ONS (origin of surname, frequency of surname, migration or surname and major regions of the world where the surname is prevalent, aspects of your ONS to-date and areas and/or topics you plan to research in future. Please include a link to your ONS blog and/or website and share any questions or suggestions you have that might be helpful to all participants and you would like us to address).

PLEASE PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION ON UP TO ONE ADDITIONAL SHEET AND/OR DIRECT US TO YOUR ONE-NAME STUDY PROFILE OR WEBSITE

IF YOU ARE NOT CONDUCTING AN ONS, WHAT SURNAMES ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT AND/OR CONSIDERING STUDYING? (Please list a surname and any variations on spelling, the location where you think the surname is from, and the timeframe you are aware the surname is in that location. Many people look into the surnames of their parents, grandparents, great-grandparents and/or interesting married-in surnames).

You may want to bring printed charts and/or family group sheets to the program - whether to be discussed during breaks, lunch, research sessions, individual consultations and/or informal participant meet-ups. The focus on the discussions will be the surnames and learning how you can learn more about them on a variety of levels.
